Grown-up reads: A swimming lesson has small steps. Swimmers listen to their teacher and practice one skill at a time. They may blow bubbles, kick their feet, or reach forward with their arms. Each swimmer can learn at a different pace.

Ask: Does the text say every swimmer learns at the same pace?

Draw / tell: Draw something you like to practice. Tell why you like it.

She may draw, label, or dictate. Grown-up writes her words.

Small steps count. Grown-up may write your words.
