Grown-up: K begins with the same sound as hard c in cat. Say kite; repeat /k/.

Listen & say: C in cat and K in kit both say /k/. Listen to these words. Do they start with the same sound? We are listening, so different letters can still make the same sound. Try: cat, kit; kid, cap.

Grown-up reads: A collection is a group of things. We can sort crayons by color or blocks by shape. We can count each group by touching one thing for each number we say. Moving the things apart does not change how many there are.

Ask: How could someone sort blocks?

Draw / tell: Draw two kinds of blocks. Tell one way they are different.

She may draw, label, or dictate. Grown-up writes her words.

Talk together: take turns saying one idea. Ask a question about your partner's idea.
