

Words I can explore

Ready for more: model together, then let Anastasia try.

Connect - 2 min: Say or write your name. Revisit one sound and count 5-10 objects.

1 Listen, blend & read

4 min

Listen: Say cat, dog, sun. Child says only the last sound: /t/, /g/, /n/.

cat

dog

sun

Grown-up teaches: This word is to. Its t has the usual sound. The o says /oo/ here. Read it together. Adult points it out whenever it appears.

I can run to the van.

Point to each of the 6 words. Which word tells an action?

2 A little writing

3 min

Trace the model. Copy it once, or write one letter with help.

van van van

3 Read, talk & draw

4 min

Grown-up reads: A young bean plant needs water, air, light, and room to grow. Its roots take in water. Its leaves use light as the plant grows. We can observe a plant each day. A drawing helps us remember what changed and what stayed the same.

Ask: What does observe mean here?

Draw / tell: Draw a place you went. Tell where, what you did, and how you felt.

She may draw, label, or dictate. Grown-up writes her words.

One thoughtful try is enough. Use a model whenever helpful.
