Grown-up teaches: Review you and we. Use each in a spoken sentence, then read it from the page.

We can pet the cat.

Point to each word. How many words? Adult explains that we ask a pet's owner before touching a real animal.

2 A little writing

3 min

Trace the model. Copy it once, or write one letter with help.

3 Read, talk & draw

4 min

Grown-up reads: People use water to drink, wash, and grow food. Plants and animals need water too. We can help care for water by turning off a faucet when we finish. Keeping litter away from streams helps protect the places where living things make their homes.

Ask: Name one way people use water.

Draw / tell: Draw an animal and tell one fact. Grown-up asks a question; add a detail to answer it.

She may draw, label, or dictate. Grown-up writes her words.

One thoughtful try is enough. Use a model whenever helpful.

science: sun and shade

With an adult, compare a safe surface in sun and shade by holding your hand nearby; avoid any hot surface. Predict which area feels warmer. Describe the observation. Sketch a shade cover for a toy. Add today's weather mark.
